Basic information about our choir

Košice Teachers' Choir was founded in 1948. In 1968, the Czechoslovak President granted the state award „For Excellent Work” to the choir.

Furthermore, the choir holds the Košice City Award and other national prizes and certificates of merit.

The choir participated at the international competition in Austrian Spittal/Drau in 1970, where it won the second and the third prize.

In 1972 the choir took part in another international choral competition in Italian Gorizia, where it became the laureate of two international prizes in the competition.

In 1976, the choir repeated this remarkable success in Arezzo.

The choir won the Gold Wreath of Bratislava City in 1988, in 1999 was awarded the prize of the City of Košice for its outstanding contribution to developing and promoting choral at home and abroad.

Maroš Potokár,

Although he claims that he was not a miraculous child, nowadays he is the youngest concert master (at least) in the former Czechoslovakia. He graduated from the Conservatory in Košice and during his studies at the University of Performing Arts, he started working at the State Philharmonic Orchestra of Košice (SFK). As a soloist he worked with the chamber orchestra Musica Iuvenalis and in 2005 he was a concert master and soloist in the Vyšehrad Youth Orchestra on tour in Czech Republic, Poland, Hungary and Slovakia. He is a primario of the Albrecht Quartet and he is also a member of the piano trio Anime. Maroš Potokár also works as a choirmaster in Košice's choir of teachers.

concert master, violinist, music teacher, choirmaster

After graduating from the Conservatory in Košice, he worked as a deputy of the concert master in Košice's Radio Orchestra and then in the orchestra DJGT in Banská Bystrica. He was a concert master in Košice's radio since 1967 till 1969 and he has been the first leader of the State Philharmonic of Košice since its establishment in 1969. He has taken part in many concert tours with the Philharmonic Orchestra and also performs regularly as its soloist. Karol Petróczi performs successfully as a violinist in Bratislava and many other Slovak cities. In addition to his professional music performances he also performs as a choir conductor. Since 1975, he was an assistant of conductor Ondrej Lenard in Košice's choir of teachers and in September 1976 he became its conductor and artistic director, what he did until 2007. Under his leadership the choir became one of the best entities in Slovakia. In fact, on the nationwide festivals of choral singing they are always placed in the first line between the best choirs. This teachers' choir also achieved significant awards abroad (Arezzo, Spittal, Varna). He founded with this choir the tradition of Christmas concerts in Košice. In 1998, he was awarded by the Prize of Košice city for his personal contribution to the cultural development of Košice.
